

A Report on Celebration of 25th International Mother Language Day
21st February, 2026

The Department of Students' Welfare, in collaboration with the Departments of Limboo, Lepcha, Nepali, and English, successfully organised the 25th International Mother Language Day on 21st February 2026 at Sikkim Alpine University. The programme was centred on the theme "Youth Voice on Multilingual Education."

The event was graced by the esteemed presence of the Deputy Registrar and the Deputy Director (Academics). The keynote address was delivered by Dr. Bishnula Bhujel, OSD, Language Section, Cultural Department, Government of Sikkim, who eloquently highlighted the importance and significance of International Mother Language Day and emphasised the role of youth in preserving linguistic diversity.

The programme also featured Mr. Nazom Limboo, Social Media Influencer (Limboo language), who shared valuable insights on the need to preserve and promote mother languages in the contemporary digital era.

The event comprised engaging speeches and meaningful discussions, witnessing active participation from both students and faculty members. The programme concluded on a successful note, reaffirming the University's commitment to promoting multilingualism and cultural heritage.
