

Report on Blood Donation Drive 2026

The Red Ribbon Club and Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan Committee of Sikkim Alpine University, Kamrang Campus, Namchi, Sikkim successfully organised a Blood Donation Drive on 10th June 2026 in collaboration with the Voluntary Blood Donor Association of Sikkim. The programme was conducted at the Kamrang Campus, SAU, Namchi.

The programme commenced at 10:00 AM and was hosted by Mr. Yougesh Darjee, Faculty, Sikkim Alpine University. The event began with the welcoming of guests and dignitaries with khadas. Dr. Dichen Ongmu Bhutia, Senior Blood Bank Officer, District Hospital Namchi, delivered an informative speech highlighting the importance of voluntary blood donation and encouraged students and members of the community to actively participate in such noble initiatives. In recognition of the university's continued contribution towards voluntary blood donation, Registrar In-charge, Mr. Satyam Dixit was felicitated by Mr. Kishore Baniya Chettri, State Coordinator (RRC), and the medical officers from District Hospital Namchi for longstanding involvement of Sikkim Alpine University in voluntary blood donation initiatives.

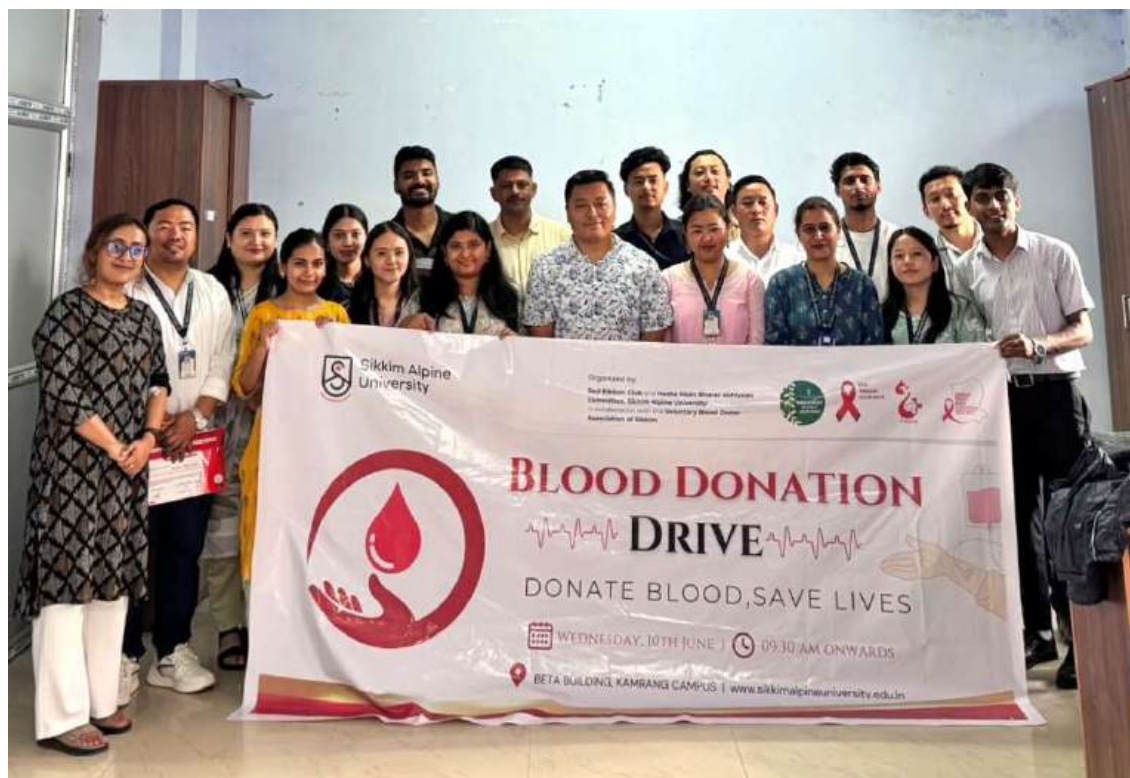

The Blood Donation Drive witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, non-teaching staff, volunteers, and members of the local community. A dedicated team of ten medical professionals from District Hospital Namchi played a crucial role in the successful conduct of the drive by carrying out donor screening, medical examinations, blood collection, and post-donation care with utmost professionalism and commitment. Registrar Mr. Satyam Dixit himself donated blood, setting an inspiring example and motivating others to participate in the noble cause. Deputy Registrar (Examination), Mr. Bimal Thapa, was also present during the programme and extended his support towards the successful organisation of the event. All the teaching and non-teaching faculty members actively contributed towards the smooth and successful completion of the programme. Student volunteers and Group D staff actively assisted in overall arrangements and logistics, contributing greatly to the successful conduct of the event.

The drive received active participation from donors belonging to various institutions and nearby communities. Blood donors came from ITI Khichudumra, Sikkim Government College Namchi, Upper Kamrang, and nearby areas. Special mention may be made of Mr. Nayan Rai, Panchayat of Upper Kamrang, along with several local donors who participated wholeheartedly in the initiative.

A systematic process was maintained for the blood donation procedure, including registration, primary medical check-up, blood donation, refreshments, and distribution of certificates. Out of a total of 86 registrations, 64 successful blood donations were recorded during the drive. At the end, the Red Ribbon Club (RRC) and Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan Committee (NMBAC), Sikkim Alpine University, were also felicitated by Mr. Kishore Baniya Chettri and the team from District Hospital Namchi in recognition of their efforts and contribution towards the successful organisation of the Blood Donation Drive.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Prashanti Pradhan, Coordinator of the Red Ribbon Club and Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan Committee, Sikkim Alpine University. The programme witnessed active cooperation and support from the administration, faculty members, staff, volunteers, healthcare professionals, and donors. It reflected the spirit of social responsibility, humanity, and community service among the participants and organisers alike.

Blood Donation Drive Photographs:

Sikkim Alpine University conducts blood donation drive

SE Report

GANGTOK, June 10: A blood donation drive was successfully organised at the Sikkim Alpine University (SAU), Kamrang Campus, Namchi today.

The drive was organised by the Red Ribbon Club (RRC) and Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan Committee (NMBAC) of SAU in collaboration with the Voluntary Blood Donor Association of Sikkim.

The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, staff, volunteers, and members of the local community, informs a press release.

The programme was hosted by SAU faculty member Yougesh Darjee followed by a traditional welcome of guests and dignitaries.

Addressing the gathering, Dr. Dichen Ongmu Bhutia, Senior Blood Bank Officer, District Hospital Namchi, highlighted the importance of voluntary blood donation and encouraged students and community members to actively participate in such humanitarian initiatives.

In recognition of the university's continued contribution to voluntary blood donation programmes, registrar in-charge Satyam Dixit was felicitated by Kishore Baniya Chettri, State Coordinator (RRC), along with the medical officers from District Hospital Namchi for the institution's longstanding involvement in promoting blood donation.

The blood donation drive received an overwhelming response from participants. A dedicated team of 10 medical professionals from District Hospital Namchi ensured the smooth conduct of the programme by carrying out donor registration, medical screening, blood collection, and post-donation care with professionalism and dedication.

Registrar Satyam Dixit

donated blood during the drive, setting an inspiring example and motivating others to contribute to the noble cause. Deputy Registrar (Examination) Bimal Thapa was also present and extended his support to the successful organisation of the event.

Teaching and non-teaching staff members actively contributed to the smooth execution of the programme, while student volunteers and Group D staff efficiently managed logistics and other arrangements.

The drive witnessed participation from donors representing various institutions and neighbouring communities, including ITI Khichudumra, Sikkim Government College Namchi, Upper Kamrang, and surrounding areas. Special appreciation was extended to Nayan Rai, Panchayat of Upper Kamrang, and several local donors who wholeheartedly supported the initiative.

A systematic procedure was followed throughout the programme, including registration, preliminary health screening, blood donation, refreshments, and the distribution of certificates to donors. Out of a total of 86 registrations, 64 successful blood donations were recorded during the drive.

At the conclusion of the programme, the Red Ribbon Club (RRC) and Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan Committee (NMBAC) of Sikkim Alpine University were felicitated by Mr. Kishore Baniya Chettri and the team from District Hospital Namchi in recognition of their efforts and contribution to the successful organisation of the Blood Donation Drive.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Prashanti Pradhan, coordinator of the Red Ribbon Club and Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan Committee, Sikkim Alpine University, the release mentions.

Blood donation camp

NAMO DIXIT

NAMCHI, JUNE 10: Red Ribbon Club along with Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan Committee of Sikkim Alpine University, Kamrang Campus, Namchi, organised a blood donation drive today. The drive is conducted in collaboration with Voluntary Blood Donor Association of Sikkim. Conducted in Kamrang Campus, Sikkim Alpine University, Namchi the event started at 10 am, and was hosted by Yougesh

Darjee, faculty of Sikkim Alpine University. Dr. Dichen Ongmu Bhutia, Senior Blood Bank Officer, District Hospital Namchi, delivered an informative talk highlighting the importance of voluntary blood donation. He encouraged students and members of the community to actively participate in blood donation drives, which he said is a noble initiative. In recognition of the university's continued contribution towards voluntary blood donation, Registrar In-charge, Satyam Dixit was felicitated by Kishore Baniya Chettri, State Coordinator of Red Ribbon Club (RRC). Medical officers of District Hospital Namchi also received felicitation for their longstanding involvement in this field of voluntary blood donation. Prashanti Pradhan, Coordinator Red Ribbon Club and Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan Committee, Sikkim Alpine University delivered note of thanks to everyone involved in today's event.

PA' Bih cla cor sta' Mi wit Col for of 1 dec cor mi dot pas
 the the "pa hyl bee the pla for con
 mo Cal fun ong sai
 the pol